

The Global Mediation Conference

The first international mediation conference for the Bar will be held in Barcelona from January 21 to 23, 2020

Organizers and dates. The Barcelona Bar Association (ICAB), through its Alternative Dispute Resolution Center and the European Group of Judges for Mediation (GEMME) will host the Global Mediation Conference from January 21 to 23, 2020.

Participants. With the motto "New Tools for New Challenges in Advocacy", the Global Mediation Conference is an international conference for lawyers, judges and other professionals in the legal field and others from the field of mediation, which expects to welcome around 1,500 participants from around the world. It is the first meeting of this type to take place in Barcelona.

Program and speakers. Experts from around the world will participate in this exciting event. The conference program includes keynote conferences, round tables and presentations on current issues in mediation such as new trends in ADR for lawyers, commercial mediation, negotiation, mediation advocacy, innovation in mediation, family mediation, national and international arbitration, restorative justice, and many other topics.

Registration fees. Regular registration for the conference is €450, "Early Bird" registration is €350 until October 31st, 2019. Members of collaborating entities with discount code receive a reduced fee of €250. Initiating professionals with less than 5 years membership in their professional association who prove their status may receive a reduced fee of €150, as may university students who also must accredit their active status.

Registration deadline. Online registration opens July 29, 2019. The reduced "Early Bird" fee is available until September 30, 2019.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Website: www.globalmediationconference.org
- Information Email: info@globalmediationconference.org
- Promotional Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LgSlcFJuxN8>